SA INNOVATION SUMMIT.

The SA Innovation Summit and the Small Enterprise Development Agency (Seda) of the national Department of Small Business Development are presenting Season 4 of the Pitch & Perfect Masterclasses and Competition – “Bridging the Gap between Entrepreneurs and Funders”.

The initiative provides SMMEs across the country, including those with support from SEDA branch clients and Seda supported business incubator clients with professional tools on how to present business cases effectively and efficiently, in persuasive pitches to potential funders, improving access to market, technology and finance.

“Bridging the gap between entrepreneurs and funders.”
